Internship Program

Publique Agency is a full-service PR and communications agency based in Melbourne, working across projects, brands, campaigns and events throughout Australia and New Zealand. Committed, passionate and fiercely obsessive about delivering the best results for the brands we work with is how you can best describe the team at Publique Agency.

Publique Agency's internship program is a two to three month program running between two and three days per week (unpaid) and has been formulated to help nurture industry newcomers and provide them with a practical approach to their university studies to ensure they are equipped with all of the necessary skills for them to land their dream job within the PR industry.

During their time at Publique Agency, students will get an inside look into agency life with all of the hustle of learning how to manage multiple clients, deadlines and priorities. Students will also learn foundational PR skills, and hone-in on their craft for pitching compelling media stories, understanding the media landscape and how to navigate media outlet.

Skill Requirements:

Before you jump into your internship, it is imperative to arm yourself with skills necessary for you to flourish and really make the most out of the opportunity.

Some of these include:

- Time management skills
- The ability to prioritise deadlines, and ultimately meet each deadline in the specific period of time
- Sound computer skills in software including: MS Office, Mac OSX, Excel, Photoshop
- Excellent communications, spelling and grammar skills
- Creativity and enthusiasm

How to Apply:

You can apply for our internship program via email, making sure to send us a cover letter and current resume (with study details) to: intern@publiqueagency.com

The Publique Agency internship programs run selectively throughout the year.

While we do accept applications on-going, please keep in mind that due to the volume of applications we receive we will do our best to answer each applicant.

So, what are you waiting for? Drop us a line and tell us what thrills you about PR!

Eligibility Requirements:

You must be a current university or TAFE student studying in a PR or communications discipline.
